

Allen College Alumni Association Scholarly Award Application

Application Deadline: Annually the first Friday in January/August

Please email completed application to Tamara.Bedard@unitypoint.org.

The Allen College Alumni Association Scholarly Award aims to assist Allen College alumni in advancing their career through certifications, research, or any type of continuing education.

Guidelines

- Must be a graduate of Allen College (or predecessor schools) to apply.
- A total of $2,000 will be awarded per year to four recipients.
- Maximum request is $500 per individual per year.
- Scholarly award money will be reimbursed to the individual after the professional development opportunity has taken place.
- Alumni who are chosen to receive this award are expected to connect with Allen College following this opportunity which may include presenting to the Alumni Board, speaking with a class or student organization, or participating in a discussion or panel.

Name
Graduation Year(s)
Program(s)
Mailing Address
Email Address
Phone Number
Current Employer
Job Title

Title of certification, opportunity, research, etc.
Amount Requesting ( max is $500 )

*Please submit supporting documentation including price quotes, invoice, etc. if available.

Scholarly Award Questions

1. Please describe your certification, professional development opportunity, or research proposal.

--

2. How will this opportunity further your goals as a healthcare provider?

--

3. What do you hope to achieve through this opportunity?

--

4. Please provide a detailed budget and date/timeline for the proposed opportunity (feel free to include scans or screenshots to show pricing).

--

Additional Questions

How did Allen College prepare you for where you are today?
What does being a lifelong learner mean to you?
Please list any community service that you are involved with (past or present).
Please share a memory from your time at Allen, an instructor who made an impact on you, or a reason that you're proud to be an Allen alumni.
Are you willing to give back to Allen College by presenting to the Alumni Board, a class, student organization, or in another way?