

Curricular Threads

Developing advanced skills of occupational therapists to ensure competent and personalized care for clients, groups, and populations.

Emphasizing meaningful engagement, inclusion, and participation in daily activities to support a person's or group's health and wellbeing.

Committing as an occupational therapist to impactful service and ethical responsibility within diverse communities.

Fostering innovative occupational therapy leaders who advocate for change and innovation in the field.

Enhancing reasoning skills of occupational therapists to apply, reflect on, create, and test evidence-based knowledge.

Professional progression in occupational therapy to meet the needs of an ever-changing world through evidence-based transformation of the profession and lifelong learning.