

Outcomes

1. Competency in Client-Centered Care:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Graduates will design and deliver interventions that are tailored to the specific needs, goals, and preferences of clients, ensuring that care is both individualized and responsive to changing circumstances.</li></ul>
2. Focus on Occupation, Participation, and Inclusion:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Graduates will promote the occupational performance of all persons through strategies that enhance a person's engagement in meaningful occupations as an active participant in society.</li></ul>
3. Community Engagement and Social Responsibility:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Graduates will actively collaborate with community stakeholders to identify local health needs, develop responsive programs, and implement initiatives that promote social and occupational justice and reduce health disparities.</li></ul>
4. Collaborative Leadership and Advocacy:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Graduates will demonstrate leadership by guiding interdisciplinary teams and advocating for policies and practices that improve client outcomes, enhance professional standards, and address systemic barriers in healthcare.</li></ul>
5. Reflective Evidence-Based Practice:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Graduates will rigorously reflect on practice to continuously assess and improve their practice decision-making, ensuring that the latest research evidence and client outcomes consistently inform their practice.</li></ul>
6. Knowledge Translation and Scholarship:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Graduates will excel in translating complex research findings into practical applications, effectively communicating these findings to both academic and non-academic audiences and contributing research to advance the field.</li></ul>